Purposes of the processing

SD Innovation may collect your Personal Data for:

- provide you with the information, products or services requested (in particular: response to commercial requests, technical support, after-sales service); and/or
- improve our Website, products and services; and/or
- be able to inform you of various events related to our activities, including product updates and customer support.

We do not make any automated decisions based on this processing.

Recipients

SD Innovation is the sole recipient of your Personal Data. Unless required by law, this information is never disclosed, transmitted or shared with other third parties, either within or outside the European Union. SD Innovation does not market the Personal Data of visitors to its Website.

Retention period

Your Personal Data are kept by SD Innovation for a period corresponding to the purpose of collection as indicated above, without exceeding 10 years.

Computer Rights and Freedoms

You may exercise your rights of access, rectification, portability, deletion of your Personal Data; limitation of processing, opposition to processing or withdrawal of your consent to processing by contacting: contact@sd-innovation.fr. If you consider it necessary, you can also file a complaint with the competent authority to report any violations likely to present a risk to your rights and freedoms.

Cookies

When you first connect to our Website, you are warned that information relating to your browsing may be stored in files called "cookies".

Indeed, SD Innovation, as the publisher of the Website, can install cookies on the hard disk of your terminal (computer, tablet, mobile etc.) in order to improve your browsing experience and create statistics of visits.

These "cookies" are small text files of limited size that allow us to recognize your computer, tablet or mobile phone in order to personalize the services we offer.

The information collected through cookies does not in any way allow us to identify you by name. However, you can set your browser to delete all stored cookies, block them upon entry or receive a message when a cookie is being stored.

Hypertext links

The SD Innovation site may contain hypertext links to other websites on the Internet. Links to these other resources take you away from the SD Innovation website.

It is possible to create a link to the presentation page of this website without the express permission of SD Innovation. No prior authorization or request for information may be required by the publisher with respect to a website that wishes to establish a link to the publisher's website. However, this site should be displayed in a new browser window. However, SD Innovation reserves the right to request the removal of a link that it deems not to be in conformity with the purpose of the SD Innovation website.

Liability of the publisher

The information and/or documents appearing on and/or accessible through this website come from sources considered reliable.

However, this information and/or documents may contain technical inaccuracies and typographical errors.

SD Innovation reserves the right to correct them as soon as these errors are brought to its attention.

It is strongly recommended to check the accuracy and relevance of the information and/or documents made available on this website.

The information and/or documents available on this website may be modified at any time and may have been updated. In particular, they may have been updated between the time they are downloaded and the time the user becomes aware of them.

The use of the information and/or documents available on this website is entirely and solely the responsibility of the user, who assumes all the consequences that may result, without SD Innovation being able to be sought as such, and without recourse against the latter.

SD Innovation cannot under any circumstances be held liable for any damage of any nature whatsoever resulting from the interpretation or use of the information and/or documents available on this website.

Website access

The publisher strives to allow access to the website 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, except in cases of force majeure or an event beyond SD Innovation's control, and subject to any breakdowns and maintenance necessary for the proper operation of the website and services.

Consequently, SD Innovation cannot guarantee website and/or service availability, transmission reliability or performance in terms of response time or quality. No technical assistance is provided to the user either by electronic or telephone means.

The publisher cannot be held liable in the event of impossibility of access to this website and/or use of the services.

In addition, SD Innovation may interrupt the website or part of the services at any time without notice, all without right to compensation. The user acknowledges and accepts that SD Innovation is not responsible for interruptions, and the consequences that may result for the user or any third party.

Modification of the conditions of use

SD Innovation reserves the right to modify, at any time and without notice, these conditions of use in order to adapt them to changes in the website and/or its operation.

Internet usage rules

The user declares to accept the characteristics and limitations of the Internet, and in particular acknowledges that :

- SD Innovation assumes no responsibility for the services accessible via the Internet and has no control whatsoever over the nature and characteristics of the data that may transit through its server centre;
- The user acknowledges that data circulating on the Internet are not protected against possible misappropriation. The presence of the SD Innovation logo establishes a simple presumption of validity. The communication of any information deemed by the user of a sensitive or confidential nature is at the user's own risk;
